

D 545 AV

The D 545 AV is Audion's most compact vertical band sealer.

Pre-made bags are sealed standing up, which is ideal for powder, liquid or solid products that would spill if sealed laying flat. The sealing unit can be adjusted in height to suit different sizes of packages. The machine can be programmed with up to 9 pre-set seal settings for different packaging / bag sizes / materials.

The D 545 AV is equipped with an easy to operate digital panel and PTFE seal belts

Applications: all kinds of sealable bags, food products, seeds, ironware, mechanical and electric parts, etc.

The D 545 is also available in a horizontal version: D 545 AH.
